

How to Listen to a Zoom Meeting from a Phone

Participants have the option to call in by phone and listen to the audio of the presentation. This is a good option if you cannot get the video to open on your computer, smartphone, or tablet or iPad. You can call in with your cell phone or a landline.

1 Open your email from your computer and locate the email with the webinar info.

2 Open the email & locate the Meeting ID and write the number down.
